The purpose of Adoption Angels Network is registering as many names possible of adopted ones and their family members.

AAN is a cooperation of adopted ones on an international level.

We hope to reunite as many family members as possible this way.

Would you also like to increase your opportunity in finding your biological family?

Your own family or your friend's?

Sign in now for free at Adoption Angels Network and leave your data behind!

Together we will be able to find the ones we're all looking for.
